

March 16, 1973

SENATOR CARPENTER: A consolidation of a number of amendments which came about as a result of a number of Senators, which I happen to be one of them, this week in order to bring about the correlation of all opinions and this amendment is quite difficult and I don't think it will be ready

(End of Belt #2)